CHAMPAGNE & SPARKLING WINE

CHAMPAGNE | GRAND MARQUE CHAMPAGNE

the top "grande marque" houses have set the benchmark for consistency and quality in champagne. rarely are their "tete-de-cuvees" eclipsed in their ageworthiness and overall excellence by the more fashionable grower producers who have arrived on the scene in the last 30 years.

TAITTINGER COMTES DE CHAMPAGNE 1986	1295

CHAMPAGNE | GROWER CHAMPAGNE

many (but not all) of the champagnes listed in the following sections are made by small growers producers, named for the simple fact that all of their wines are created from grapes which they farm themselves. unlike the grand marques, who purchase a majority of their fruit from many villages across the large champagne region, growers usually focus on one village (or terroir). these exciting producers offer an opportunity to taste the many terroirs of champagne side by side, which is invariably masked in blends from the large houses.

CHAMPAGNE | CÔTE DE BLANCS

a thin band of white chalky soil, which emerges in this tiny region of champagne, allows for the best blanc de blancs from chardonnay to be made. le mesnil-sur-ogre and avize create wines which can be the crème de la crème, but they are trailed closely behind by villages such as ogre, cramant, oiry, cuis, vertus, and chouilly.

CHAMPAGNE | VALLÉE DE LA MARNE

the cool valley created by the marne river allows for pinot meunier to thrive. historically seen as just a blending grape, the greatest producers in this region are showcasing its ability to stand alone. cumieres, ay, and mareuil-sur-ay are the most important villages in this region.

CHAMPAGNE | MONTAGNE DE REIMS

if the cote de blancs produces the most delicate and ethereal wines in champagne, the montagne de reims produces its most powerful. pinot noir reigns supreme here and montagne de reims wines have the versatility to pair through an entire meal. bouzy, verzenay, ambonnay, and verzy are villages which stand above the rest.

WHITES OF THE MEDITERRANEAN

the mediterranean is the cradle of civilization, as well as the likely birthplace of the vine. historians believe humans first encountered wine grapes in modern day lebanon and, by 4100 bce, domesticated them in modern day armenia and georgia. the phoenicians, followed later by the greeks and romans, spread the vine on every side of the sea. though celebrated in antiquity, many of the traditional wines of the mediterranean exist in obscurity today regardless of their clear potential and historic importance. it is believed two-thirds of the vine varieties on earth are indigenous to the mediterranean, and we believe that these wines are natural accompaniments to great mediterranean ingredients found on our menu.

GREECE

the wild west of the mediterranean: greece is home to 227 inhabited islands, most of which have dozens of their own unique grape varieties grown nowhere else.

WHITES OF CONTINENTAL EUROPE

the top wine regions of continental europe exist as a result of the church and its desire to expand. starting in the middle ages, wine was an integral component of sacrament and followed catholicism through its expansion. some of the most iconic wine regions of the world including burgundy, champagne, alsace, and the mosel have the catholic church to thank.

FRANCE | BURGUNDY

in 910ce benedictine and cistercian monks found themselves in burgundy tending vines under charlemagne. the vineyards were slowly delineated, and the best wines went to the church. many of the vineyards, documented centuries ago, still produce some of the most sought after wines in the world.

SPAIN

just as the church brought the wine grape to northern europe, it also brought it back into the iberean peninsula after an absence of multiple centuries. the camino de santiago pilgrimage reached its apex after the 12th century as the moorish rule began to collapse. devout catholics traveled from as far as modern day czech republic to reach st. james' reputed buirial site at santiago de compostela in galicia. along the way, grape vines were planted for sacramental purposes and many grapes in spain today likely came from countries along this journey.

during the age of exploration, the azores were discovered along the journey to the new world. wine from the island of pico was already prized and sold as far away as st. petersburg starting in the 16th century, long before winemaking on the more famous island of madeira had been perfected. after a long period of obscurity, the wines from the volcanic azores are starting to make serious waves as a new terroir for wines of the mid-atlantic.

REDS OF THE MEDITERRANEAN

the mediterranean is the cradle of civilization, as well as the likely birthplace of the vine. historians believe humans first encountered wine grapes in modern day lebanon and, by 4100 bce, domesticated them in modern day armenia and georgia. the phoenicians, followed later by the greeks and romans, spread the vine on every side of the sea. though celebrated in antiquity, many of the traditional wines of the mediterranean exist in obscurity today regardless of their clear potential and historic importance. it is believed two-thirds of the vine varieties on earth are indigenous to the mediterranean, and we believe that these wines are natural accompaniments to great mediterranean ingredients found on our menu.

LEBANON

it is only fitting that one of the most iconic wines of the world comes from the place the grapevine is likely indigenous to. gaston hochar, inspired by his friend roland barton to plant cabernet-sauvignon in lebanon, returned with cuttings from chateau leoville barton. gaston also planted cinsault and carignan to complete the blend. the resulting wines are spicy, powerful, and age effortlessly. gaston's son serge made over fifty vintages, including wines made during the lebanese civil war (1975-1990).

REDS OF EUROPE

ITALY

before 1861, hundreds of city states comprised what we now refer to as italy. look no further than the cuisine and wines of these former city states to see that every region has a distinct cultural identity. combined, over 475 grape varieties (many of which are planted nowhere else) span italy's length, which is longer than texas! although latitude plays an important role in the styles of wines that are made in each region, equally impactful is a region's proximity to the coast. below, we separate the coastal areas which share more in common with other mediterranean regions (like greece and southern france) from inland ones which share more in common with cooler continental regions (like burgundy and rioja).

FRANCE | SOUTHERN RHÔNE VALLEY

pope boniface viii (famously depicted in the eighth circle of hell in dante's inferno) set off a chain of events that changed the french wine landscape forever. in 1309 ce, the avignon papacy was born as a result of his feud with king phillip iv, ultimately resulting in his abduction and death. the papacy split and avignon pope (john xii) thereafter developed a papal vineyard: châteauneuf-du-pape (chateau of the new pope). this is the premier region in the world for grenache, blended with up to 17 other indigenous grape varieties.

FRANCE | NORTHERN RHONE VALLEY

in the 17th and 18th century, the wines of hermitage were sold at prices dwarfing what are now first growth bordeaux estates. famously, some bordeaux producers at the time added rhone wines to their blend to add strength and complexity. today the wines of the northern rhone are incredibly undervalued given they demonstrate the height that syrah is capable of.
